WHEREAS, on September 18, 2003, City Council approved the Fiscal Year 2004 General Operating Budget by the passage of Ordinance No. 98181, which included the appropriation of $2,329,157 in local Hotel/Motel tax revenues to the Office of Cultural Affairs for its Arts Funding Program and the pending award to various local art agencies and other programs; and

WHEREAS, Operational and Project Support applications have been received by the Office of Cultural Affairs for the Fiscal Year 2004 round of the Arts Funding Program and reviewed by staff and the Cultural Arts Board (the "Board") in accordance with the revised funding process approved by City Council on March 28, 2002; and

WHEREAS, due to the projected reductions in state and local funds, the Board gave priority to maintaining the two-year funding commitments made to agencies made in Fiscal Year 2003 for operational support; and

WHEREAS, additionally, the Board recommended that funds for the Symphony Society of San Antonio be redirected to support the transformation or recovery efforts of the City Symphony Oversight Committee by addressing the recommendations in the "Mayor's Ad Hoc Symphony Task Force Report on the San Antonio Symphony" and as suggested by the Board; and

WHEREAS, based on the recommendations of the Cultural Arts Board stemming from the funding process, staff recommends that City Council award $2,329,157 in Hotel/Motel funds to the various local art agencies and other programs more specifically identified below in Sections 3 and 4; NOW THEREFORE:
